

The Cupid Players

Born singing and dancing in 1999, The Cupid Players is Chicago's original musical sketch comedy group. This troupe of sketchy songsmiths are known for creating original, intelligent sketches rooted in social satire – as well as for the catchy, clever songs that are the highlights of their skits.

“A show worth catching”

– Chicago Tribune

“A rarity in the sketch scene”

– Windy City Times

“The talented, high energy cast is terrific”

– Chicago Reader

“Sharply original...will make you laugh”

– New City

Locally, the Cupid Players have performed at CIF and The Chicago Sketchfest and have been featured on CBS, WGN, WTTW, WCKG and WBEZ; they've sung across the nation at The Boston Comedy Festival, The New York Sketchfest, The Dudley Riggs Theater in Minneapolis, The Los Angeles Sketchfest, The Miami Improv Fest, The Seattle Sketchfest, The San Francisco Sketchfest and The Portland Sketchfest.
